^{*}In cases of towns where there have been an abnormal movement of population, it is likely that the population estimates may not be sufficiently reliable for calculating the birth and death rates.

[†] Figures not available.

Explanation of symbols used:—B. w Births; B.R. = Birth rate; C.  Cholera; S.  Smallpox; P. = Plague; F.  Fevere; D. D. = Dyseu-y and Diarrhoea; R.D. = Respiratory diseases; M.D. = Maternal Deaths; D.R. = Death rate; L.D = Infantile Deaths (included in total).

REMARKS

The figures of births and deaths shown in this statement for the week ending the 3rd June 1950 relate to 185 towns with an estimated population of 24,127 thousands. The total number of towns is 233 and their population is 28,421 thousands. Thus 79% of the total number of towns representing 85% of the total population is covered in this statement. The numbers of births and deaths recorded in these towns were 11,779 and 9,688 representing birth and death rates of 25 4 and 20.9° per thousand of population respectively.

(A) States (Parts A and C).—The data here relate to 15% towns with an estimated population of 21,198 thousands. Information about Assam. Bihar, and Madhya Pradesh could not be included. The total number of towns is 201 and their population is 24,668 thousands. Thus 79% of the total number of towns representing 86% of the total population is covered. The numbers of births and deaths recorded in these towns were 10,250 and 8,807 representing birth and death rates of 25.1 and 21.6 per thousand of population respectively. The table at the end gives the position by states.

The towns of Hathras, Etawah and Lucknow in Uttar Pradesh and Nabadwip in West Bengal recorded high death rates of 80·3, 66·3, 55·0 and 52·0 per thousand of population respectively. In Hathras and Etawah, the ligh death rate was mainly due to deaths from fevers, in Lucknow to fevers and respiratory diseases and in Nabadwip to fevers and smallpox.

(B) States (Part B).—The data here relate to 27 towns with an estimated population of 2,929 thousands. The total number of towns is 32 and their population is 3,753 thousands. Thus 84% of the total number of towns representing 78% of the total population is covered. The numbers of births and deaths recorded in these towns were 1,529 and 881 representing birth and death rates of 27·1 and 15·6 per thousand of population respectively. No town recorded a high death rate of 50 or over per thousand of population.
